Profile

Alan Rhodes believes that each relationship is different, and that each relationship holds unique opportunity. He combines his legal experience with his business acumen to assist his clients in a variety of topics relating to corporate, commercial, non-profit, and private enterprises. Those areas include the purchase and sale of assets, business acquisitions, ownership and management transition strategies, commercial loan work-outs, public finance, commercial real estate development, regional business development strategies, and general business and legal advice. Some of the business sectors in which Alan has worked include health care, agriculture, governmental, non-profit, and general commercial development.
