

Employment Contracts & Collective Bargaining

Our attorneys are available to assist employers in writing or reviewing contracts for employees and independent contractors in all industries and economic sectors. We begin by listening carefully to your concerns and goals, and use our decades of collective experience to provide you with a customized approach, so the resulting agreement actually addresses your situation.

Depending on the circumstances, agreements may range from a short memorandum of understanding (i.e., scope of work) to a sophisticated multi-part contract that includes executive compensation formulas, confidentiality clauses, non-compete covenants, and numerous other concerns. Whether your business is small or large, private sector or public sector, you benefit by speaking with one of our attorneys about how to solve or avoid problems with a well-written employment contract.

When the occasion arises, Underwood is available to assist you with groups of employees in the negotiating of and dispute resolution under collective bargaining agreements.
