

Insurance

Full service law firms must provide services related to insurance and insurance coverage, and Underwood is no exception. Lawyers from our Litigation Practice Group and other areas are well versed in coverage issues, and we also represent our insured clients in a variety of litigation settings.

In addition to general commercial and liability insurance matters, many of our lawyers have significant experience in more specialized or focused matters, including the following:

- Crop insurance
- Title insurance
- Professional negligence (e.g., accountants, lawyers, engineers, etc.)
- Officer and director errors and omissions coverage
- Fiduciary liability
- Medical malpractice defense
- “Bad faith” litigation
- Defense of consumer claims (e.g., Deceptive Trade Practices Act claims)
- Commercial and residential hail and storm coverage and other first-party claims
- Personal injury litigation and defense
- Garagemen’s liability
- Construction claims
- Bond and surety matters
- Employment related claims
