

Probate/Fiduciary Litigation

The death or incapacity of a loved one is an extremely stressful time for their loved ones. These life events sometimes involve circumstances that result in conflict regarding the interpretation, enforcement, or defeat of testamentary instruments, powers of attorney, trusts, and rights under an existing or forthcoming guardianship. We have a wealth of experience representing family members and loved ones during these times of emotional turmoil.

When our client's require assistance with the enforcement of rights under a will, defeat of a fraudulent or revoked document, interpretation of a trust document, or a champion for one's rights in a mental capacity issue, Underwood's probate attorneys are ready to champion causes in informal negotiations, mediation, and litigation.
