

2017 President's Award for Leadership in TADC Given to Slater Elza

Oct . 10 . 2017 | Firm News

At the Texas Association of Defense Counsel \(TADC\) Annual Meeting in Seattle, Washington, Slater C. Elza was awarded the 2017 President's Award for Leadership, Service and Dedication to TADC. Slater served as the TADC Publication's Vice President for 2015-2017 where he worked to establish substantive law sections in Commercial Litigation and Construction Law. Slater was also recently elected to the TADC Executive Committee, where he will serve as Secretary for 2017-2018.

TADC is a professional organization of civil trial attorneys dedicated to promoting excellence in its members, fairness in our judicial system, and preserving the right to jury trial for all citizens.