Franchising/Licensing

Underwood's business and corporate attorneys have extensive experience representing business owners in franchising their business and in the license of their products or technology. We are equipped to advise both franchisors and franchisees in navigating every phase of franchising. We also work with individuals and business owners in copyright and trademark matters to protect their intellectual property and license that intellectual property. Our attorneys use an interdisciplinary approach to achieve our client's goals at every stage of the franchising and licensing process.
