J. Lindsey Rusler

Attorney

Profile

Lindsey Rusler was born in Amarillo and was raised in Merkel, Texas. After graduating from Merkel High School, she attended Abilene Christian University, where she graduated with a degree in Communications and a minor in political science. Lindsey then attended Norwich University and received her master's degree in international relations and conflict resolution. She then went on to attend St. Mary's University School of Law. Her practice primarily focuses on real estate law, renewable energy, and POA law.

Lindsey also served in the United States Army Reserves from 2000-2008. She worked as a Civil Affairs sergeant in Iraq in 2003 and upon returning home, she was commissioned as a lieutenant in Military Intelligence. Lindsey has worked with veteran non-profit organizations assisting veterans who have been severely wounded in combat.

While not working, Lindsey enjoys spending time with her husband and two boys. They love to ride horses, backpack, camp and spend as much time outdoors as possible.
