

UNDERWOOD

Public Finance

For cities, schools, community colleges, counties and hospital districts, access to public finance is a critical part of meeting long term facility and infrastructure needs. Experienced counsel, from planning an election to bond issuance and beyond, is a must.

Underwood's Public Finance lawyers provide bond and underwriter counsel services for all forms of governmental and educational financing throughout Texas. In recent years, Underwood has been integrally involved in well over 150 issues, worth more than $1.3 billion. Underwood's Public Finance practice encompasses a variety of public and private financing, including general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, certificates of obligation, qualified school construction bonds (QSCB), and lease-purchase agreements.

Additionally, lawyers in Underwood's Public Education and Municipal Law groups spend significant time assisting with bond issues.