

UNDERWOOD

Real Estate

Underwood's Real Estate Law Practice Group represents buyers, sellers, developers, builders, and lenders in a broad range of real estate matters.

Our attorneys commonly handle the purchase and sale of both urban and rural real estate, including drafting necessary documents for real estate closings, assisting with real estate financing, examinations of title, providing title opinions, curing title problems, assisting with acquisition of title insurance, and advising on the various corporate and tax implications for real estate transactions. We have substantial experience in advising on real estate development and investing along with organization of partnerships and joint ventures.

We also handle issues relating to real estate leases, including drafting and negotiating commercial leases and assisting with landlord and tenant disputes and proceedings.

In collaboration with Underwood's Litigation Practice Group, we represent clients in all types of real estate disputes, proceedings, and litigation.
