Profile

Ronn Garcia prides himself in having strong West Texas roots having been raised in Lubbock, Texas. He received his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Wayland Baptist University and his Doctor of Jurisprudence from the Texas Tech University School of Law. In addition to enjoying a deep West Texas heritage, Ronn is fluent in Spanish.

During law school, Ronn served as a summer clerk for the United States District Court, Northern District of Texas, Lubbock Division, where he was the first recipient of the "Certificate of Distinguished Service."

Local community involvement has always been an important part of Ronn's personal pursuits. In 2013, he was a graduate of Leadership Lubbock and was selected as one of Lubbock's Top "20 under 40" professionals by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Currently, he serves as executive board member of the South Plains Community Action Agency as a Steering Committee Member of Lubbock's Chamber University.
