

UNDERWOOD

Tax

Underwood's Tax Law Practice Group advises and assists clients with numerous business transactions, business structures, tax controversies, tax-exempt issues, and estate planning issues. To ensure clients receive the best tax benefits and capitalize on all possible tax opportunities, the Tax Group spends countless hours keeping up with the ever-changing tax laws and regulations. Our attorneys are knowledgeable about federal, state, and local tax laws. The group assists individuals, sole proprietorships, municipalities, school districts, tax-exempt organizations, corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, and professional entities in a wide range of areas involving tax issues, including:

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Bonds
- Corporate, partnership , and individual taxes
- Limited liability companies
- Payroll taxes
- Choice of entity
- 1031 Like-Kind Exchanges
- Real estate transactions
- Family limited partnerships
- Estate planning
- Gift taxes, gift planning, and other wealth transfer tax issues
- Franchise/Margin taxes
- Disregarded entity planning

Related Attorneys

- Dave Goad
- Sharon White