

With over four decades of experience, Sharon White is a seasoned advisor who listens closely to understand her clients' legal needs and develops well-crafted estate plans and real estate contracts.

Sharon White represents clients in the areas of real estate, estate planning, and probate. She has guided clients through numerous successful real estate transactions, including the acquisition and sale of commercial and agricultural properties, mortgage lending matters, and title examination.

In the areas of estate planning and probate, Sharon counsels individuals and families on general estate, tax, and family business planning to ensure clients' legacies are preserved. She also handles estate and trust administration, and guides clients through the intricacies of the Texas probate process.
