

Wade Arnold works closely with his clients to develop creative and hard-hitting solutions for their litigation matters.

Wade Arnold's broad litigation practice includes matters in the areas of commercial law, personal injury, construction, contract disputes, general real estate and title claims, premises liability, and various cases involving breach of fiduciary duty. He handles both litigation and civil appeals in state and federal courts.

In addition to his broad litigation practice, he also assists clients with the preparation of contracts, business negotiations, and various corporate activities.
